How I am not

Log Date: ____|____|____

Reason

Am I mirroring the profound thinking of Jesus, reasoning more biblically, logically, factually, creatively, and relationally, pursuing all truth as Christ's truth for the glory of God?

Emote

Am I mirroring the just sentiments of Jesus, feeling rage at the mockery of God and exploitation of his image-bearers, compassion toward the suffering, and my deepest joy in God?

Flip

Am I mirroring the upside-down action of Jesus, using my power to empower others, pursuing pleasure by questing for their good, and finding purity that only comes from God?

Love

Am I mirroring the radical relationality of Jesus, giving my self to others not to become loved but because I am loved, and not from my strength but from God who makes me “abound in love”?

Elevate

Am I mirroring the saving grace of Jesus, lifting enemies, the oppressed, poor, guilty, unholy, and unwanted into friendship, victory, freedom, justice, purity, and family?

Create

Am I mirroring the artistic genius of Jesus, showing that matter matters, protesting “the present age,” and inspiring joy and hope of “the age to come” in the things I make?

Transform

Am I mirroring Jesus in all of life, being transformed in daily life by the Spirit so that, as I behold Christ in Scripture and in community, I am becoming more truly myself to God’s glory?
